Buffalo Run Farm, Grill & Gifts

Lincoln State Park

Ever wonder what Abraham Lincoln did as a child? Was he always so honest and humble? Find out in Lincoln's Indiana Boyhood Home where young Abe lived from the time he was 7 until he was 21.

See a replica of Lincoln's homestead and visit the Living Historical Farm at Lincoln Boyhood National Memorial. 2012 marks the park's 50th anniversary.

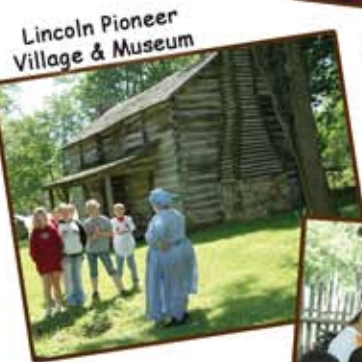

Colonel Jones Home

Lincoln Amphitheatre

Walk through the trails on the same grounds Abe walked many years ago at Lincoln State Park and visit the Lincoln Boyhood National Memorial that celebrates his 200th birthday.

Watch Abe's Indiana story come to life on stage at Lincoln Amphitheatre. "A. Lincoln: A Pioneer Tale" premiered in June 2012 and is a two-act musical featuring 10 original songs and score. The show will return in 2013.

Lincoln Pioneer Village & Museum

Living Historical Farm

Take a relaxing look back into history with 14 Lincoln-era replica cabins and an artifact-filled museum at the Lincoln Pioneer Village & Museum in Rockport, near the Ohio River. Stop by Lincoln Landing where Abe launched his first flatboat trip to New Orleans, inspiring his anti-slavery views, and see Lincoln Ferry Park where he was sued over his ferry business, sparking an interest in law.

There's more...

With one of only two archabbeyes in the U.S., the Saint Meinrad Archabbey is a must-do on every visitor's list! From the beautiful architecture to the tranquility and peace of the grounds, the Archabbey is a great place to get away and relax in St. Meinrad, Indiana.

For a taste of the country, visit Monkey Hollow Winery in St. Meinrad, Indiana, and Pepper's Ridge Winery in Rockport, Indiana. Sipping wine on the covered porch is the perfect way to unwind and enjoy the scenery.

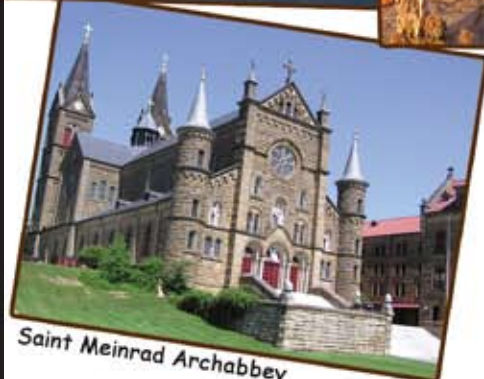

Also, you won't want to miss a chance to travel back in time to the good ole' days of drive-in movie theaters at one of the few remaining, Holiday Drive-In. With five screens and two concession stands you'll be able to watch your favorite movies under the stars and on the big screen in Reo, Indiana!
